

StorkWorks Coaching & Consulting

Because a life without direction isn't lived, it's lost.

EXECUTIVE LIFE COACHING

A personal guide for PRC directors to explore your vision, establish goals and achieve your mission for yourself and your Center. Ongoing communication and access to a network of nonprofit professionals.

Here's some words from our clients:

"My coach is amazing at helping me bring to light things that I didn't even know were stewing within me. She is encouraging, detail oriented, and challenging. She teaches techniques that are truly applicable to everyday life in a way that will help me reach my goals one step at a time." -Life Coaching Client

"Coaching has helped me clarify my purpose which has led me to using my time more effectively. My professional coach has been worth every penny."

Use our experience to grow exponentially.

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Gather your leadership, key personnel, and your full board for StratOp. This process digs deep into your PRC to give you a wholistic look at your organization and a guide you through constructing your strategy for furthering your mission. A Storks professional consultant comes to you for this 3-day-on-site consult.

BOARD TRAINING

A retreat style two day consultation at a location of your choice, designed to enhance the board of directors' understanding of their role in your ministry and facilitate further growth. This training also includes board recruitment strategies, as well as board and staff communication. This training is two days onsite.

CEO ON DEMAND

1 HOUR PHONE CONSULTATION:

Need clarity on a major issue but can't squeeze in a 2 day retreat to address it? Storks offers a one hour consult over the phone with our CEO, Joe Baker.
